Date of Event: 2021-03-09

Place of Event: Online Platform

In-Charge Member: IEEE WIE-SPIT

On 9th of March, WIE-S.P.I.T. organized a webinar “ Miss India Multinational 2019 , sponsored by IEEE WIE Bombay Section Affinity Group for the celebration of Women’s week. The speaker Miss Tanvi Malhara is a living example of beauty with brains. She is a former RJ and an excellent speaker. She has completed her BA in media studies and psychology from the Symbiosis School of Liberal Arts. She is an all-rounder and has participated in several state and national level competitions.

The speaker shared her experiences about her personal life and her beauty pageant journey. She emphasized on how much self-confidence is important and how it helps one’s to stand out from others in a room. She shared her own journey from how she accepted her flaws and her failures. She highlighted her life events and how everyone can achieve them with consistency. Later in the Question and Answer segment, she answered the questions asked by the host and participants. She encouraged everyone to pursue their dreams.

The eloquent speaker guided the participants by giving very useful insights about her life journey :

- 1) Beauty Pageantry world
- 2) how it enhances confidence
- 3) How to become a RJ

She encouraged everyone to go for Pageantry.

After a vote of Thanks and token of Appreciation to the speaker for giving this insightful session and also everyone for attending it. The event was carried out Successfully.
