On the occasion of international women's day , WIE inaugurated its womens week celebration.

Chief guest: Vinal and Apurva, core members of the team 2018-19

Starting with blast dance by Mudra (The cultural committee of SPIT)

Next we had a beautiful song by Sujata Gawas Ma'am . It was a Marathi song based on women empowerment. Sahil Tayde from second year extc recited a poem on how women used to be , how women are and women future . Apulki Dubey too recited her mother's poem 'Savitri use banna hai' .

Different departments of the college came up with their idea of womens week and presented it to the audience. Electronics department spoke about many ladies who are a inspiration to all of us and played national anthem through Arduino board . EXTC department did a song skit on save girl child .

Last but not the least , our principal Dr. B. N. Chaudhari addressed the audience and encouraged the female staff and students . Coming to the conclusion , prize distribution for the coding contest held past week was held . Teachers and staff were given mugs , chocolates and greeting card . Indeed in great vision of our faculty mentor , for the first time womens week was celebrated by women and men too on a large scale .
